Eric C. Trosch Certified as Family Law Specialist

Charlotte, NC -- Eric C. Trosch has been certified as a specialist in family law by the North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization. He is one of only 184 lawyers statewide to achieve this distinction.

Mr. Trosch is a partner in the law firm of Conrad Trosch & Kemmy. He is the son of founding partner Louis A. Trosch.

To be certified by the North Carolina State Bar as a specialist in a practice area, a lawyer must have been in practice for at least five years, devote a significant part of his or her practice to the specialty area, attend continuing legal education (CLE) seminars in the specialty, be favorably evaluated by other lawyers and judges (peer review), and pass a written examination in the specialty practice area.

Mr. Trosch graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and received his law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law. He was the first recipient of the annual American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers' Award for outstanding contribution to the advancement of matrimonial law.
