Eric Trosch Named Super Lawyers Rising Star

Eric Trosch, a partner in the law firm of Conrad, Trosch & Kemmy, has been named a Super Lawyers Rising Star. Trosch is a specialist in family law, certified by the North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization.

Super Lawyers is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high-degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. In 1998, Super Lawyers launched Rising Stars to recognize top up-and-coming attorneys in the state - those who are 40 years old or younger, or who have been practicing for 10 years or fewer. The selection process includes independent research, peer nominations and peer evaluations.

Eric Trosch graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and received his law degree from Wake Forest University School of Law. He joined Conrad, Trosch & Kemmy in 2002.

He was the first recipient of the annual American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers' Award for outstanding contribution to the advancement of matrimonial law. Appointed to the Domestic Court Committee of the Mecklenburg County Courts in 2002, he assisted in the drafting of local rules and forms for Mecklenburg County.

Eric also is an active member of the Family Law Section of the North Carolina Bar Association, and was appointed to serve on the statewide Collaborative Law Committee. As a member of the Mecklenburg County Bar, he has chaired the Mecklenburg County Swearing-in Ceremony Committee. Eric is certified to practice Collaborative Law and is a member of the executive steering committee of the Mecklenburg Collaborative Family Law Practice Group.

His wife, Elizabeth Trosch, is a Judge in the Mecklenburg District Courts. Conrad Trosch & Kemmy (www.ctlawyers.com) is a full-service law firm offering legal expertise with a common sense approach.

Super Lawyers magazine features the list and profiles of selected "Super Lawyer" and "Rising Star" attorneys and is distributed to attorneys in the state and to ABA-accredited law school libraries.
