

CONRAD TROSCH & KEMMY, P.A.

October 1, 2014

CTK Awarded Outstanding Firm Service Award

Legal Aid of North Carolina (LANC) recognized Conrad Trosch & Kemmy (CTK) for the firm's commitment to serving low-income families, individuals and children with pro bono legal work by presenting CTK with the Outstanding Firm Service Award in ceremonies held in mid September.

"The firm has been especially instrumental in serving LANC's domestic violence clients, accepting every pro bono referral offered to them in the last 18 months," said Theodore Fillete, senior managing attorney of LANC's Charlotte office. "Their work is invaluable and reflects the highest standard of pro bono service to the most vulnerable segment of the community."

The firm has been able to take some of LANC's most critical cases, working through complex and timely circumstances to protect survivors of domestic violence according to the nonprofit's press release.

"Our attorneys share a passion for the law and the fundamental belief that an individual's economic circumstances should not serve as a barrier to our justice system," said CTK partner Minette Trosch and member of the firm's pro bono team. "Our pro bono work allows us to give back to a community that has supported our firm for over forty years."

Click here to read the official release from Legal Services of North Carolina.

Photo: Ted Fillete presenting award to Minette Trosch. Photo from Legal Services.