

CONRAD TROSCH

& KEMMY, P.A.

March 9, 2015

Traci Belk Joins CTK Real Estate Practice Area

Traci Y. Belk has joined the Charlotte law firm of Conrad, Trosch & Kemmy, P.A., where she will focus on real estate law. She was born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas and moved to the Charlotte area in 1993. Prior to joining Conrad Trosch & Kemmy, Ms. Belk worked with David Weekley Homes in Charlotte.

"We are pleased to announce that Traci has joined Conrad Trosch & Kemmy, P. A. as our newest associate," said founding partner Louis A. Trosch, Sr., who heads the firm's Real Estate Division. "Traci has 20 years of experience in the residential real estate and new home construction industries and is highly motivated to develop her practice. She is an excellent addition to our team."

A graduate of Pfeiffer University, Ms. Belk earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Organizational Communication. She is a licensed broker in both North Carolina and South Carolina. After 16 years in the new home construction industry, she entered Charlotte School of Law. While in law school, in addition to a variety of volunteer activities, she was a member of the McMillan Inn of Phi Delta Phi and the Bobbitt Inn of Court.

"I am delighted to be a part of Conrad Trosch & Kemmy. The rich history and solid reputation of the firm is important to me, and I appreciate the firm's creative approach to legal solutions. I look forward to putting my experience to work for my clients and offering a common sense approach to their real estate needs." Ms. Belk said.

Ms. Belk is admitted to the North Carolina Bar and is a member of the American Bar Association, the Mecklenburg County Bar Association and the Real Property Section of the Mecklenburg County Bar Association.